WILL HINES AND TILDEN COME TO THE RESCUE OF WM. LORIMER?

Rumored That Financiers May Help the Former Senator
Out and Save Banks—Another Bank Closed Up—
"Depositors Will Be Paid," Says Munday.

Will Edward Hines, president of the Hines Lumber Company, and Ed Tilden come to the rescue of the Lorimer banks? A rumor to the effect that they would passed around political and financial circles today.

Hines has long been a friend of the former senator and was intimately involved in the trouble that caused the ousting of the blonde boss from the United States senate.

Ed Tilden is also regarded as likely to come to the aid of Lorimer in his present trouble. If these two really take this action every depositor could be paid.

Charles B. Munday, Lorimer's associate, said today: "As sure as God is my judge we will pay our depositors dollar for dollar. The LaSalle street bank will be liquidated within a week and the outlying banks are not affected at all.

The State Bank of Cahumet, 10758 South Michigan avenue, was closed today, making the fifth Lorimer-Munday bank by the state bank examiner. The others are: The LaSalle
